

SWO MATERNAL & CHILD HEALTH PROGRAM (MCH)

ABOUT MCH

MCH aides conduct home-visits to provide family planning information and support to the prenatal and post-natal women on the Lake Traverse Reservation. They focus on women considered “high risk” as indicated by their age, parity, reproductive history, and marital status.

ELIGIBILITY: Women of child-bearing age

PHONE: 605-698-3531

MORE INFORMATION

SERVICES: MCH Aides conduct home-visits, provide education & counseling in family planning, make referrals for female health care needs, provide guidance in appropriate birth control methods or procedures, provide follow-up services such as, transportation to prenatal, post-partum and well-child appointments, and resource agencies.

AVAILABILITY:

30-40 cases

